Week ending Friday 19th October 2018

Year 4 loves Chocolate!

Both Year 4 classes visited the Chocolate Museum this week. They were surprised how small the museum was, but enjoyed the aroma of the place. They learnt how to grind the beans, how the Mayans floured their chocolate. They also made their own wrappers using Mayan glyphs. A great time was had by all and we are especially grateful to the parents who volunteered to accompany us on the trip.

Every day in school matters.

Well done Year 4 both classes over 97%! Second week in a row

It's half term next week. The girls return to school on Monday 29th October 2018 at 8:45 am.

Next term we will be looking at the Topic 'From a Railway Carriage'. It is underlying theme is journeys. Perhaps you could talk to your girls about journeys you have made. How are they different from today? The girls could make a poster of transport from the past.
