Saturday Tuition

This starts for all girls this weekend— January 12th. 1.30pm The girls will wear their own clothes and can bring a drink and snack.

These tuition sessions are held in small groups, focusing on English and Maths skills, to help the girls achieve their best in the SATs tests in May. Please refer to the letter which your daughter brought home, for full details.

Science:

This term the focus is upon investigating Darwin's Theory of evolution and exploring inheritance and adaptation. Later in the term we will take part in a science fair and get a chance to share the pupils' scientific knowledge with parents.

Happy New Year!
