Next week we will be focusing on the following in class:

Writing: We will continue to read the story the Giant's Necklace. Our writing will focus on the events of the story from the perspective of different characters: Cherry's parents, brothers or coastguard.

Reading: The girls will continue to read the story focussing on the features the writer has used to make the story poignant and interesting to read.

Maths : Using two different methods to find percentages of different amounts.

Topic: We will be exploring balanced and unbalanced forces. We will continue to build our K'Nex fairground rides.

Earth Hour

Earth Hour takes place on Saturday, 30 March, from 8:30, when people across the globe will be switching off their lights for an hour to show that they care about the future of the planet. Why not turn off the TV and power down the devices, and sit down with a book? This would also be a great opportunity to discuss the issues which are affecting the planet, such as pollution and deforestation—which link to Science, Geography and PSHE.

Trip to The London Eye

We had a fantastic time at The London Eye. The girls had a panoramic view of London and had a great time eating their lunches at South Bank—even though the pigeons gave them a hard time!

Homework set this week:

In Maths, the girls need to revisit work they have gotten wrong in their workbooks. They will need to use their green pens to make correction to their work. These will be checked next week.
