Next Week

Monday, 6 May —
Early May Bank Holiday

Wednesday, 8 May —

Take One Picture Launch at The National Gallery

During the Autumn Term last year, the school participated in the Take One Picture programme run by the National Gallery. The focus was on a painting entitled An Experiment on a Bird in the Air Pump. Pupils had to respond creatively to its themes and subject matter, historical context, and composition. The competition aims to inspire cross-curricular learning, as well as a lifelong love of art. Year 5 performed extremely well — the work in the sketchbooks being of such high quality and calibre that some of the girls were selected to be included in the exhibition. The exhibition will be available for viewing from 9 May through to 11 August 2019. Admission is free and the exhibition is located in the Sunley Room.
