Week ending Friday 16th October 2020

Black History

This week our pupils have explored the work of British Composer Samuel Coleridge Taylor. They have participated in a Mini Mobo (Music of Black Origin) Project using an example of Taylor's work to compose a piece of music of their own. They have recorded their compositions using Garage Band and this will be shared with the whole school during singing assembly.

We have also continued our reading of "Coming to England" by Floella Benjamin.

Next Week, the girls will participate in a Black History Enrichment Day where they will complete three activities.
