Year 6 Newsletter

Week ending: Friday 7th May 2021

Transition sessions

To help the girls with their transition to Year 7, we have started exploring themes of self-confidence and self-esteem, alongside the importance of speaking out in support of respect for others and leading an impactful life. These sessions will take place weekly until half-term, led by Year 6 teachers.

Music this Week...

Year 6 listened to an older piece of mood music, which was written 200 years ago, by the composer Carl Maria von Weber. Like Harry Potter, Der Freischütz concerned magic and the battle of good and evil.

Girls watched a very spooky scene in Wolf's Glen, where the Devil allows a huntsman to create seven magic bullets. The darkness and mystery was brilliantly portrayed by Weber which captures the imagination of the girls, despite the fact that very little was happening on the stage. John Williams who composed the Harry Potter music, used similar techniques to create equally popular and successful scores.

DT Project

Some of the companies have now started making their products, with the Operations Manager for each group overseeing the process.
