Year 6 Newsletter 18

Week ending: Friday, 28th January 2022

step-by-step plan so that they know exactly what materials they need.

The design is for a production of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, and the girls had a choice of stage sets - the Mad Hatter's Tea Party or the Caterpillar scene. We saw an amazing variety of materials and are looking forward to the finished models! 6.3 is going to make their models next week.

Holocaust Memorial Day 2022

The theme for Holocaust Memorial Day 2022 was 'One Day'. It encourages everyone to reflect, learn from the past, empathise with others and help build a better future.

After attending our special Holocaust school assembly, Year 6 created poetry to mark the day. Their poems clearly reflected the feelings and emotions of the people who were affected during and after the Holocaust.

During our class discussions, the girls expressed their hopes for the future that one day all members of our communities feel valued, loved and embraced equally, regardless of their individuality. Girls also reflected upon our school values 'Respect, Forgiveness & Tolerance' and discussed how having these values helps to sustain peace in the society.
