Week ending Friday 7th January 2022

This week's Learning

Welcome back to school to all our pupils. This week pupils have started to read and interpret data on line graphs.

They have begun their narrative poems: "What makes a good friend?" Which they have based around the relationships between the characters in the class text.

In ICT, they have looked at the features of spreadsheets and in PSHE they have described how it feels to have hopes and dreams.

Pupils were introduced to Judaism and the law relating to food in their first RE lesson.
