This Week's Learning

This week, pupils have begun writing persuasive letters. This is based on the class novel where they write as the character Fern who tries to persuade her uncle not to send Wilbur—her beloved pig—to the Smokehouse.

In Maths they have explored fraction word problems.

In RE, they have continued learning about Judaism, discussing and rank ordering the requests made by God to the Jewish people.

Work on Spreadsheets continued in ICT, with pupils using the timer and random number buttons—a fun way to explore numbers. Their history lesson this week enabled them to identify aspects of our culture influenced by the Romans.
