This Week

English The girls wrote an instructional text setting out the steps on how to look after a dragon. They also typed up a newspaper article on the horrendous murder of the unicorn the Harry Potter story.

Design & Technology

We worked on the designs and prototypes of their products.

Windrush Celebrations 2022

As part of our annual Windrush Celebrations, we hosted specially invited guests including Councillor Alisa Flemming, The Worshipful The Civic Mayor of Croydon. The catering team offered us an impressive Caribbean lunch of jerk chicken, rice and a selection of vegetables. The Steel Band Performance by our incredibly talented pupils opened the activities for the afternoon. The main production consisted of the historical and dramatic performances of people arriving in the UK back in the Windrush era. It highlighted the reasons why Windrush is celebrated each year and the contributions of the Caribbean migrants. Interwoven into the production were dance routines, African drums and traditional Caribbean songs. If you visit our school website, you will find a comprehensive photographic trail and detailed written account of yesterday's events.
