This Week...

English

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.

Geography, Science, and Design and Technology. The girls had a fantastic time on their day out.

PSHE Speak out, Stay safe!

This week we ran the programme to reinforce the advice that we give:

if a pupil feels bullied, abused, sad, worried or unsafe, then they can tell a trusted adult or call Childline to get help and support when they need it.

We have visited the Chocolate Museum in Brixton. This links the work covered in English, History,

Mathematics

The girls learnt to multiply 2-digit numbers without renaming.

Certificates of Achievement

- 4.1 Whole Class and Armela
- 4.2 Whole Class

Bucket Fillers

- 4.1 Faiza and Prathesha
- 4.2 Danaya and Divine

We have started reading The Great (Food) Bank Heist by Onjali Q. Rauf. It is a moving story that gives a child's-eye view of the increasing problem of food poverty.

Food Collection

We are asking for donations of tinned for our local food bank. This is for people that have difficulty in purchasing enough food to stave off hunger.

Mathematics Workshop

28 November: Monday 9 to 10 am

All year 4 parents are invited to the workshop on multiplication strategies. The purpose is to help you support your daughter. If you attend, then your daughter will join you in the hall so you can participate together in the activities.
