

Mrs Selvadurai – History Lead

I've been a teacher for over thirty years and worked in a range of settings around South London. I am the History Subject Leader. I look forward to a new challenge each year. I am experienced and help children move forward, instil confidence and make good progress.

I'm a mother of 2 girls, one has finished university and one is approaching her GCSE's.

Interests:

Science, Gardening, looking after my family

My three cats are called Whisk, Muttley and Tigger.
