

Where there is love
there is life.

Year 3 Newsletter

Week ending: Friday, 10 February 2023

We're working towards Artsmark
Awarded by Arts
Council England

English:

This week, the girls explored Juan's inner thoughts and feelings through participating in a conscience alley drama activity. They considered the pros and cons of Juan visiting in his mother's house, after he was locked out of his grandmother's house. This then helped the girls write a first person monologue, from Juan's perspective.

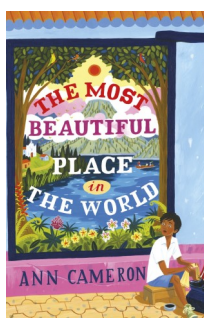

They also learnt a new Alan Peat sentence called What + !.

Here are a few examples:

What a terrible day!

What a lonely, tiring day!

What a disappointing, disastrous day!

Value of the month:

Love

Bucket Fillers

3.1: Miriam

3.3: Amani

STARS OF THE WEEK

3.1: Sofia & De'Andra

3.3: Amani & Haifa

Science:

We will be having a science fair after half term. Please read the homework sheet sent home with your daughter for more information (also on Google Classroom).

3.1's research question: Does caffeine affect plant growth?

3.3's research question: Do household detergents affect plant growth?

Please supervise your daughter with the online research and ensure your daughter answers the questions on the sheet.

Maths:

The girls have made connections in their new topic volume from their mass and length learning. They are getting better at reading the scale on the measuring beaker and determining what the small increments stand for.

After half term, we will be solving word problems involving volume and the four operations.

Please ensure your daughter practices her timetables over the holidays! Tip: one time tables group a week!
