STUDENT OF THE TERM!

Well done to our students of the term. Their efforts and enthusiasm towards their learning was exceptional this term! We hope we continue to see great work in the new half term.

English: We have finished reading Gorilla by Anthony Browne. We ended off our writing with a persuasive text answering the question: should animals be kept in zoos?

The girls explored the features of a persuasive text and linked the question to the illustrations in the book and then researched advantages and disadvantages of animals in zoos.

Maths: We have finished time! Our new topic in the new half term will be pictograms & bar graphs.

Spellings:

Image, imagine, important, impossible, impress, impression, gentle, gently, simple, simply

Homework:
