Winterbourne Junior Girls' School Year 6 Newsletter 2

Week ending: Friday, 15th September

This Week -

In English, year 6 explored the historical context of our class text 'Torn Apart: The Partition of India' by Swapna Haddow. The girls wrote letters in the role of one of the characters from the book describing the ordeal.

In Maths, year 6 used concrete resources to consolidate their knowledge of the place value. They compared and ordered numbers up to 10 million.

Roald Dahl Day

The day was such a success and packed with lots of fun and excitement. Year 6 learnt about Roald Dahl's life and his journey to success.
