Aspirations, Expectations, No Excuses

This Week... Cultural Week

We have been looking at our cultural heritage and sharing this information in our classes. This provides an opportunity for the children to deepen their understanding of cultural diversity. The children have thoroughly enjoyed the week. We have:

- explored the meaning of Cultural Heritage and considered our own cultural heritage

- examined the vocabulary involved in this topic: legacy, heritage, custom, tradition, culture, beliefs and values, identity and national identity

- created our personal cultural identity tree
- made a travel passport to investigate our heritage

- identified country of origin of an ancestor on a world maps
- wrote a fact file about themselves called All About Me
- designed a cultural fashion doll
- presented their special object to the class
