Black History Month:

To celebrate the achievements of Black Britons, Year 6 this week have been exploring the Biographies of the people who played a significant part to make Britain successful. The girls also took part in class discussions, and answered the questions based on the attributes of these great people. Our class text for the rest of this half-term is 'Two sisters - A story of Freedom written by Kereen Getten which is based on the theme of sisterhood, struggle and survival from Jamaica to Britain.

In Music this week, the girls explored some pieces of music and recognised different dimensions within them, they planned and composed their own pieces of music using a range of instruments to create texture. Each group got an opportunity to perform their piece to the rest of the class.

Green Project

The girls had a busy afternoon at our allotment this week, where they harvested the Corns, Beetroots and Chard. They also prepared the beds for our next plantation. It was a great experience!
