Aspirations, Expectations, No Excuses

This Week...

English Charlotte's Webb

The girls wrote a recount about their trip to Butser Ancient Farm on Monday. They learnt that a recount is a way of retelling an important event where it is told chronologically, it is also written in the past tense using descriptive language and in the first person.

Mathematics

The children have continued with their work on multiplication and division including the use of bar models to solve word problems.

History and Geography

We visited Butser Ancient Farm to examine a reconstructed Romano-British villa so we could explore how real people lived at the time.

Religious Education

The girls reflected on the most important part of the Christmas story.
