Week ending: Friday, 15 December 2023

We finished our end of term assessments this week. We have been so pleased to see their assessment outcomes! They have come a long way since September!

On Monday, Year 3 tuned in to watch Michael Foreman, the author of Snowman and the Robin, talk about his book which released this October. You can purchase a copy of the book from Waterstones and Amazon.

The girls also watched the British animated short film called Snowman. It's about a young boy who starts making a snowman on Christmas, it magically comes to life. The snowman then takes him on a journey to meet Santa Claus.

Value of the month:

Respect

PSHE: The girls explored some ways of helping to make someone who is being bullied, feel better. They first learnt to define what bullying meant in their own words and then discussed how they can help a person who is being bullied. The girls worked together in a group to come up with some solutions. We hope they can apply these ideas should they come across a child being bullied. We are a Telling school at WJGS!

RE: In RE, the girls identified the true meaning of Christmas. Just like Christians believe Jesus is a gift to the world, the girls had to think of one thing they could gift to the world to make it a better place.

Maths:

Year 3 have been introduced to multiplying a two digit number with a one digit number using the long method.

Ask your child to have a go at these questions at home!

(a) $16 \times 4 =$

	t	o
	1	6
x		4
+

(b) $28 \times 5 =$

	h	t	o
	2	8
x			5
+
