Week ending Friday 1st March, 2024

Curriculum

Class Text: The Highwayman

English: Describing poetic features

Math: Decimals

RE: Christianity: Did God intend for Jesus to die?

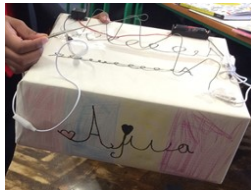

Science/DT Unit: The Fairground

This week, pupils have explored the features of discursive texts and have written one based on Kensuke's Kingdom. In Grammar, they looked at subordinating conjunctions, identified these and used examples to link phrases to create sentences. During Reading Comprehension, they revisited the prediction skill.

In Maths, they used Base 10 apparatus to look at decimal numbers, partitioning into tenths, hundredths and thousands and identifying their fractional equivalent.

Pupils completed their Shaky Hand Tester game and evaluated the product.

In PE, pupils applied different gymnastic skills with hand apparatus to work out and perform a sequence of movements in a group.

In ICT, pupils explored the features of the 'Design and Make' tools on Purple Mash, after which, they designed bricks and roof tiles for a model of a house using the pattern fill tool.
