This Week...

English

We have continued writing our blog about Alice's life on St Kilda. We have started investigating other characters who live on, or who have moved to the island.

Mathematics

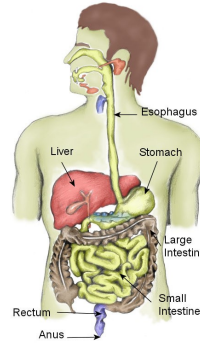

We have continued our work on geometry and the properties of shape. We have learnt about equilateral, scalene and isosceles triangles and have loved at the different types of quadrilaterals. It has been fun investigating shape. We have also learnt about symmetry and a line of symmetry.

Science

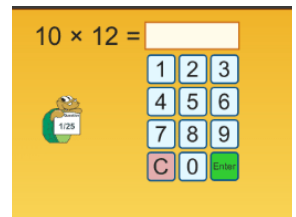

This week the girls looked at the digestive system. They had many questions about the digestive system and how it turns food into nutrients our body needs. They loved the practical demonstration and learnt many new scientific words such as oesophagus Ask your daughter what she remembers about this process.

On Tuesday 14th May 2024 at 4:45pm there is a virtual meeting about the upcoming Multiplication Times Table Checker that Year 4 children will undertake in June.

Good Luck to all of Year 6 who take their SATs next week.
