Brit school drama workshop

This week, 30 girls took part in a drama workshop with the BRIT school. The girls explored their creativity looking at the different ways they can portray emotions, themselves and animals through drama and body movements. Each group performed a piece and were given feedback by their peers.

Tennis festival This week, a group of girls went to learn about the importance of teamwork in a sports setting and practiced their bat and ball skills which they could apply in a game of tennis. The girls worked really well together and showed excellent sportswomanship in every activity they took part in.
