This Week...

English:

We have started to investigate a character that has been in the background of the story SeaBean—Charlie who had lived in St Kilda but is now living in Hong Kong. Using the C-Bean, the children travel to see their classmate they have an adventure on the way. We wrote about how Charlie felt when they turned up at his apartment. The girls were fascinated by the Durian Fruit that was mentioned in the book.

SeaBEAN

Mathematics

We have been consolidating our knowledge and skills in division, multiplication and equivalent fractions.

European Regional Study- Italy

We have been learning about the artist Michelangelo, and his work the Creation of Adam. We focused on the hands and drew these. We also investigated what Italy looks like today. What food the Italians eat. Landmarks of the country and discovered that the Colosseum was first built in the time of the Romans.

RE Visit

We had an informative trip to St Stephen's church on Thursday.

Mother Joyce explained the features of the church and their importance to the Christian faith. The girls asked many thoughtful questions.
