

Winterbourne Junior Girls' School

Year 5 Newsletter

Week ending Friday 28th June, 2024

This week, pupils wrote a news article about an incident they explored in the class text. They also completed a progress check of their Reading Comprehension. In their Grammar lesson, pupils were introduced to the present perfect tense and completed an exercise showing its use.

In Maths, they calculated perimeter and area of composite shapes, after which, they estimated the area of irregular shapes drawn on a grid.

In Science, pupils discussed conception in humans and appreciated that they need to understand and respect the changes that they see in other people.

This week pupils completed their final session of "We Can Cook" where they made pasta sauce. They also enjoyed a Water Safety Assembly on Monday.

In RE, pupils discussed how 'The Fruits of the Spirit' help Christians to show their commitment to God.
