English:

The girls have planned and written a persuasive letter. They recapped the features of a persuasive letter and used drama to step into the shoes of Mary and Uncle Craven. They have written a letter from Mary's perspective, as she tries to persuade her Uncle to let Colin go into the Secret Garden.

Science:

The girls learnt about the function of roots. They also looked at habitats and explored habitats found in the school environment. They identified living organisms specific to each habitat.

Maths:

The girls were introduced to angles. They identified angles as two straight lines which meet at a point. They looked at right angles and used this knowledge to help identify acute and obtuse angles. They also identified angles in given shapes.
