Week ending Thursday 22nd May

This Week...

English

This week, pupils explored themes derived from the class' text. They discussed how these themes are portrayed in the novel, citing examples to support their choices.

Maths

Pupils reinforced their knowledge of how to name and plot coordinates on a grid, using it to describe and perform translations and reflections, including reflecting shapes across both horizontal and vertical lines. Pupils enjoyed the challenge of multiple reflections and showed great progress in understanding position and movement.

Science

Pupils collected leaves from the playground and used features like shape and edges to classify them. They created branching databases using yes/no questions to help identify each leaf.

PSHE

Pupils have been learning about their responsibilities when interacting with others online. They explored how to stay safe, respectful, and kind in digital spaces, recognising how their actions can affect others. The discussions helped them think critically about how to build positive online relationships.

Art

Pupils became nature artists! Inspired by Andy Goldsworthy, they explored the playground to collect leaves, sticks, and stones, then used them to create stunning outdoor sculptures. Each piece was a unique masterpiece made entirely from
