The BRIT
SCHOOL

Brit school drama workshop

This week, 30 girls took part in dance workshop with the BRIT School. The girls explored their creativity by learning a dance routine and expressing themselves through movement. The theme of the dance was nature. Each group performed a piece and were given feedback by the facilitators.

Tennis trip This week, a group of girls went to learn about the importance of teamwork in a sports setting and practiced their ball and batting skills which they could apply in a game of tennis. The girls worked really well together and showed excellent sportswomanship in every activity they took part in.

The Bluebell Railway

Our Year 6 pupils are looking forward to an exciting trip to the Bluebell Railway on Tuesday, 10th June. If you have not yet signed and re-turned the permission slip for your daughter, please ensure it is submitted by Monday morning.

Star Students of the Week

6.1 : Khaleelah and Daria

6.3: Margreth & Galilee

Wishing a joyful and peaceful Eid al-Adha to all our families celebrating this weekend.

For our Philosophy for children assembly, year 6 explored 'What does it mean to be responsible?' they discussed the ways they can show responsible attitudes.
