Winterbourne Junior Girls' School

Year 6 Newsletter 9

Week ending: Friday, 7th November 2025

This half-term, our focus text is A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens. Year 6 have been enjoying reading the story and learning about life in Victorian London. This week, the girls have written descriptions of the streets of Victorian London, using what they have learned from the text to include interesting details and vocabulary in their writing.

Virtual STEM

This week, our pupils enjoyed their first virtual meeting with our partner school in India. Our girls confidently shared key facts about the UK, our local community, and what a typical school day looks like here. They represented the school brilliantly and loved learning about the local problems that our partner school and their community face. We look forward to more exchanges like this.

It was a privilege to have a music specialist from Norbury High School teach us a special song.

Some of the girls will have the opportunity to perform it at the Winter Performing Arts Evening at Norbury High School on the 17th December 2025. Please speak with your daughter to see if she is interested in learning, practicing, and taking part in this exciting performance.
